Mills' Assailants Held for Court.

John Miller and Fred Moore were given a hearing in the jail on last Friday before Justice of Peace J. L. Hill, charged with offenses growing out of the shooting of Abner S. Miss on the night of February 22.

The hearing had been postponed by reason of the condition of Mr. Mills. With the bullet in the brain he has been in a serious condition and one difficult to determine the result. The charges against the prisoners would depend upon such results. At the hearing last Friday, John Miller was charged with larceny, assault with intent to kill, assault with intent to commit robbery, and jail breaking. Fred Moore was charged as aiding and abetting in the three first named offenses. The witnesses heard were Mrs. Mills, who was in the store when the attack was made, County Detective Chas. H. Wilson, and State Policeman Tipton and Shafer. The prisoners were held for court, and whether they will be tried at the April court will be determined by condition of Mr. Mills.

On Tuesday Mr. Mills was taken to the Carlisle Hospital and nine X-Ray pictures were taken of his head and the bullet was located in the posterior portion of the left hemisphere of the brain, indicating that the bullet entering at the left temple had gone to the back of his head. In the course brain cells were destroyed or torn, for he has no memory of certain functions, as of reading and letters. It is likely he will recover this function just as one learns to read. The most remarkable fact is that he is alive in spite of such injuries to the brain. He is able to be at his store and has been seen going up and down the street, apparently in good health.

Appeal from Co. Auditors' Report.

Brady M. Sefton, County Treasurer, has filed an appeal from the report of the County Auditors in which the following errors are alleged and pointed out.

That auditors failed to charge him with liquor license of 1918 of $705.

That they charged him with outstanding tax liens of $166.53, when the item was included in the tax duplicate with which he was already charged, making a duplication.

That he was charged with a temporary loan from the York Springs National Bank of $11,000 when the loan from the bank was but $9,000.

That he was charged with sum of $84.77 paid by John Feeser, when the sum had been paid in 1917 and accounted for in that year.

That in crediting him with $11,354.13 outstanding tax for 1915 he was entitled to a credit of $16.36 in excess of that amount.

With the sustaining of this appeal the County of Adams will have a net gain of $2437.34.

Basehoar, of Littlestown, who is also a graduate of Gettysburg College, will accompany her husband. They expect to sail for England about September 1st.

VICTORY LIBERTY LOAN

MESSAGE CABLED FROM PRESIDENT WOODROW WILSON.

To Redeem in Full Faith the Promise of the Sacrifice of Blood of Our 60,000 Sons.

The drive for Victory Bonds opened with the following cable from President Wilson:

For two anxious years the American people have striven to fulfill the task of saving our civilization. By the exertion of unmeasured power they have quickly won the victory, without which they would have remained in the field until the last resource had been exhausted.

Bringing to the contest a strength of spirit made doubly strong by the righteousness of their cause, they devoted themselves unswervingly to the prosecution of their undertaking, in the full knowledge that no conquest lay in their path, excepting the conquest of right.

To-day the world stands freed from the threat of militarism, which has so long weighed upon the spirit and the labor of peaceful nations. But as yet we stand only at the threshold of happier times. To enter, we must fulfill to the utmost the engagements we have made. The Victory Liberty Loan is the indispensable means.

Two years ago we pledged our lives and fortunes to the cause for which we have fought. Sixty thousand of our strongest sons have redeemed for us that pledge of blood. To redeem in full faith the promise of this sacrifice, we now must give this new evidence of our purpose.

WOODROW WILSON.

The Victory Loan is a winner, going over because the people want the best security in the world today, the bonds of our own country and because the people have the money with which to buy these bonds. Already two districts have subscribed their quotas of the Victory Bonds. The second ward of McSherrystown with an allotment of $24,000 has sold over $34,000 and Biglerville has subscribed more than its quota. The whole quota for the county looks so easy that orders have gone out to push things up to the 30th and see whether the full quota will not be sold by that time. The total sales with the bonds selling themselves is over $200,000 ,about one-fifth of the total in the first district.

On Friday evening there will be a Victory Meeting in Xavier Hall, which will pack that auditorium. The speaker will be one of the greatest of army orators, the war has brought to the front, Dr. John H. Clifford, known as the Fighting Chaplain, who won his croix de guerre and Lorraine Cross at Chateau Thierry and Belleau Wood. He will have a story well worth hearing.

Best Speller in County.

The county spelling contest is showing the fruit of this recent development. The schools are making almost perfect spellers out of the pupils of our schools. 265 children throughout the county made marks of 100 and 99 in spelling the words in the "1000 word" book. 141 of the 265 made their appearance at the county contest last Saturday morning at the Court House. In the morning the test was made on the words in the "1000 word" book and only eight or nine failed. So the big class went at the new words in the afternoon with the following winners:

The champion speller was Clarence Lochbaum, of Bingaman's school, in Franklin township.

Second, Miss Catherine Griest, of Sunnyside.

Third, Miss Eleanor Peters, Biglerville High.

Fourth, Miss Ruth Scott, Biglerville High.

Fifth, Miss Ada Sclar, East Berlin High.

The prizes in order were: A Webster's International Dictionary; a Collegiate Dictionary; Secondary Dictionary; Elementary Dictionary; and Shorter Cut Dictionary.

Superintendent H. Milton Roth pronounced the words. The following teachers were judges: R. Raymond Shank, Gettysburg; Clinton E. Tawney, New Oxford; Harvey E. Swartz, Biglerville; Carrie E. Lady, Menallen township; Ruth E. Deardorff, Franklin Township; and Myrtle L. Sheely, Cumberland township.

An Act Deserving Severe Punishment

On last Friday night a heavy wire was stretched across the Hanover and Littlestown pike at the C. N. Myers farm, G. Milton Krug, of Littlestown, returning home in his car, ran into the wire, breaking the windshield and top and badly cutting his nose and face. The top of the car saved Mr. Krug from being jerked from his car. The perpetrator of this act should be found and given severe punishment.

There are some individual subscriptions yet to be reported and action has not been taken by all the churches, orders and organizations, and the exact total has not been determined. There was a very gratifying response from the greater portion of our community, and the small minority was to be expected, for there are those who never seem to realize and appreciate that a town's best asset is the children.

NEW WORK OF CANTEEN

GETTYSBURG COMMITTEE ENTERTAINS WOUNDED SOLDIERS

Two Parties from the United States Hospital at Carlisle Were Here This Week.

The Red Cross Canteen of the Gettysburg Chapter will have charge of a new work that will give cheer to many wounded soldiers of the World War. Arrengements have been made by the United States General Hospital at Carlisle to give convalescent wounded soldiers an outing of a trip to the Gettysburg Battlefield. They are to be sent here in ambulances and after dining will be taken over the field.

The first party to make the trip was twenty-four wounded soldiers on Tuesday of this week. They arrived near the noon hour and a fine dinner was awaiting them at the St. James Social Room, prepared by the Gettysburg Red Cross Canteen. After dinner the boys were taken over the battlefield in cars driven by Misses Anna Gilliland, Elizabeth Huber, Bessie Kelly, Frances McClean, Eleanor Prickett and Grace Shroeder. They were taken to all the important parts of the field with Benton Gilbert as guide, explaining the field. About 4 o'clock they left in their ambulances for Carlisle.

A second party of twenty-four wounded soldiers came on Thursday and were entertained at the same room by the Red Cross Canteen and taken over the field in cars driven by Rev. F. H. Brunstetter, Chas. W. Gardner, Wesley Oyler, Chas. Plank, James R. Reaver and Arthur Taughinbaugh. J. Warren Gilbert was the guide on this trip. The entire trips on both occasions being free will offerings of our people. The boys were simply delighted with their entertainment and spoke of it with enthusiasm and appreciation. A physician accompanied each party.

The boys represented all kinds of wounded cases from slight to severe ones, shrapnell wounds, and those caused by high explosives. Many of the boys were from Pennsylvania and one at the Pennsylvania monument declared he had been over the top in France and would not be satisfied until he went over the top here and went over the high spots at the memorial.

On Wednesday seven nurses from the same hospital came here and were sent over the battlefield under guide.

Memorials to be Dedicated July 4.

At a meeting of the Pennsylvania Memorial Commission in Philadelphia on Wednesday, it was decided to have the dedication of the memorials to Generals Geary, Hays and Humphreys on the Gettysburg Battlefield on Friday, July 4, 1919. The dedications of these memorials was postponed last year on account of the war. The anniversary of the great battle will be most appropriately observed this year with these dedications and will not only attract a large number of the surviving veterans of the organizations commanded by these generals, but will bring many visitors here.

Change in Laundry Owners.

Jesse Snyder, who with C. Ray Rupp purchased the Gettysburg Steam Laundry from George Rex on April 1st, has sold his interest to R. R. Long, of Lewistown, Pa. The transfer was made on Tuesday. Messrs. Long and Rupp will continue the business and Mr. Rupp will be general manager. Mr. Long in acquiring this interest again becomes part owner of the business which he originally started here about sixteen years ago.

New Bridge and Toll Roads.

The matter of a new bridge on the Harrisburg road beyond the Major's farm and the buying of the toll roads of the county have been occupying the attention of the County Commissioners.

Nineteen residents along the Harrisburg road petitioned for a new bridge to be built while the new road was under construction and was presented at the Tuesday meeting, and the matter was gone over with the State Highway Commissioner at a meeting in Harrisburg on Wednesday. The offer was made that if the county commissioners would build a wide cement bridge the State would build the approaches and the bridge roadway and the county commissioners were urged to do the work now and complete the road. It was agreed that the project should be submitted to the April Grand Jury and if approved would be undertaken.

The county commissioners took up the question of the purchase of all the toll roads, not only the good pikes, the Hanover to East Berlin, and Littlestown to Hanover, but also the Hanover and Carlisle pike. It has been represented that York county was willing to pay its proportion of these pikes. Experts of the Highway Department have been over these pikes but are not ready with a report and when completed Highway Commissioner Sadler will meet the county commissioners in order to arrive at some conclusion in relation to the same.

ROBERTS, HAROLD W. (1013943) Corporal, Co. A., 344th Battalion, Tank Corps. (Deceased).

FOR conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity above and beyond the call of duty in action with the enemy in the Montrebeau Woods, France, Oct. 4, 1918.

Corporal Roberts, a tank driver, was moving his tank into a clump of bushes to afford protection to another tank which had been disabled. The tank slid into a shell hole, ten feet deep, filled with water, and was immediately submerged. Knowing that only one of the two men in the tank could escape, Corporal Roberts said to the gunner, "Well, only one us can get out, and out you go," whereupon he pushed his companion thru the back door of the tank and was himself drowned.

Think This Over

The investment of Funds and care of these investments are always difficult problems for the average individual.

Why not create a trust which can provide for the payment of income to you during life and designate the disposition of property after your death. Or which may be so drawn that in case of need through illness or unexpected misfortune the principal may be drawn on for that purpose.

In this way the aged are relieved of the care and investment of funds, which is always a difficult matter for persons who are not physically strong.

The laws of Pennsylvania guard well funds placed in the hands of Trust Companies of the state.

THE CITIZEN'S TRUST COMPANY OF GETTYSBURG stands ready to assume these cares and responsibilities for you.

Call and talk it over with the Trust officer.

"We were surrounded in a forest on a hillside of the Argonne. The demand to surrender came on the fifth day. Having held on so long, we thought we had better go through with it"

Charles W. Whittlesey

"Tell Them to Go to Hell!"

No food, no shelter. Swept by machine gun and shell fire. An inferno, day and night. And little hope of escaping.

Five days of this! But not a daunted soul among the four hundred and seventy Americans in the Lost Battalion.

Commanding the little group was Major Charles W. Whittlesey. To the offer of safety if they surrendered, Whittlesey replied without a moment's hesitation: "Tell them to go to Hell."

And they were saved because, as Whittlesey says: "Having held on so long, we thought we had better go through with it."

We, safe at home, have "held on" too—with our support through Four Loans. And we are "going through with it"—through with this Fifth call to duty—just as those boys in the Argonne. Make good.

Owners Are Better Guides than Specifications

Nothing our salesmen can say about the Willys-Knight motor car can be as convincing as the statements of Willys-Knight owners. The man who had driven a Willys-Knight car thousands of miles becomes so enthusiastic over the sleeve-valve motor that he is rarely ever content until he prevails upon his friends to profit by his experience. The Willys-Knight sleeve-valve motor is so ungrudging and unflagging in its performance that it has come to be known as the motor that always runs. The staunch allegiance of Willys-Knight owners has given rise to the expression—"Once a Willys-Knight owner always a Willys-Knight owner."

NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®

MEET MISS VICTORY!

This is the statue of "Victory" which was made in the Voigt Studio, Philadelphia, to be placed in South Penn Square during the Victory Liberty Loan campaign. Nine smaller ones will be set up in outlying sections of the city. In the center is shown the sculptor, Tom Robertson. The other men in the picture, from left to right, are W. Morgan Churchman, A. E. Berry and R. D. Norton, Associate Directors of the War Loan Organization; Gilbert E. Gable, Director of Publicity, and John H. Mason, Director of the War Loan Organization.

SMALLER TOWNS GET BIG SHARE OF LOAN FEATURES

Dirigible Balloon Flights, War Trains, Trophies and Speakers Are Provided.

Rural communities throughout the entire Third Federal Reserve District are to have bigger and more spectacular methods of campaigning during the Victory Loan drive than in any of the four preceding loans.

Features galore, many of them entirely novel, will be ready for the enjoyment of the great masses of people who live outside the big cities. Something will be doing almost constantly from the start of the campaign on April 21 until it closes May 10.

No detail has been overlooked in the effort to make this last campaign most impressive in the smaller towns and country districts. Plans already completed and others which are under way provide for carrying Liberty's message into every corner of the district.

One of the biggest features is the flight of a giant naval dirigible equipped with all its engines of destruction as used in actual warfare. This balloon will travel from its base near Philadelphia to the far corners of the district, making at least two flights each week of the campaign.

During its daily flights it will be in the air twelve hours, half of which time will be spent in flying over the towns and communities far into the interior. It is capable of making a speed of 50 miles an hour, and easily can reach the most distant communities and return the same day, making several demonstrations en route. So watch the sky, and your vigilance, no doubt, will be rewarded.

The dirigible will be piloted by one of the most capable flyers in the Navy, Ensign C. W. Tyndall, of New York, who spent many months guarding the Atlantic Coast from the air, on the lookout for German submarines. He has mastered every trick of operating the big monitor of the air and will fly at low altitude, so that good opportunity may be had to observe the manipulation of the balloon. During its flights he will from time to time release smoke bombs, such as were thrown about troopships when they were being conveyed across the Atlantic. He will also drop Victory Loan literature.

Another big feature will be the distribution of interesting motion picture films to hundreds of towns—some of them showing American soldiers in action in France. Deeds of doughboy heroism, which put fear into the heart of the Boche, feats of the "Teufel Hunden" or "Devil Dogs," as the Germans called the American marines, and exploits of "those fool Yankees" who dashed over the top with no thought of personal safety—these and other thrilling features will be shown on the screen.

Another strong appeal has been designed especially for the rural districts. Plans provide for visits to all sections by returned American heroes, the men who offered their lives for the American cause and who still are giving unselfishly of their time that all Americans shall have the opportunity of learning why they are asked further to lend aid to the government.

These boys, many of them just recovered from serious wounds, have volunteered to act as Victory Loan speakers. They will be in all sections and their message is one of particular interest in remote districts.

War trains, bearing the speakers, will make stops anywhere from a half hour to two hours in each of the towns visited. On each train will be an exhibit of captured German war material. Also there will be an American "whippet" tank, which will be run down skids to the street and participate in a parade. Local speakers in each instance will be asked to join with the soldiers in conveying the Victory Loan message to the people. Time of arrival of the train at each town will be announced beforehand in the local papers, so that the country people can arrange to be in town for the event.

Of course, the government is not going to fail because any one individual does not subscribe to the Loan, but if there are a few million non-subscribers, then the government will be sadly incommoded financially and the results on every phase of national life will be serious.

This is the answer the returned heroes will have for the man who takes the "let George do it" attitude, who says there are plenty of other men who can better afford to subscribe to the Loan.

Reports received at headquarters every day show conclusively that the rural campaign is to date of the most encouraging nature. Great results are expected and all the Central Committee Loan workers are confident oversubscription will result in every district.

Doan's Kidney Pills have made their reputation by effective action.

The following case is typical.

Gettysburg residents should be convinced.

The testimony is confirmed—the proof complete.

Testimony like this cannot be ignored.

John J. Tawney, 234 Baltimore St., Gettysburg says: "I suffered off and on with rheumatic pains and kidney ailments. My back ached constantly and often in the morning I was so lame and stiff I could hardly get out of bed. My kidneys acted irregularly too. Someone advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills and I got some at the People's Drug Store. I was surprised at the quick relief I received. I am not bothered by rheumatic pains now and I am in much better health all around."

OVER TWO YEARS LATER Mr. Tawney said: "I still use Doan's Kidney Pills, in fact, I always keep them in the house. I know if I take a few as soon as I have any symptoms of kidney trouble. I will be saved a great deal of suffering."

Hold Your Liberty Bonds.

Some get-rich-quick concerns are endeavoring to persuade patriotic Liberty Bond holders, whom they know will not sell outright their Liberty Bonds, to turn them over to these companies as security for a loan and with the money thus borrowed purchase stock in their companies.
